Dear Mrs Hudes,

It is with great pleasure that I write to thank you for your presentation during the hearing "The Effectiveness of Whistleblowing" on 25 May 2011 and for your participation in the exchange of views that followed.

I share the opinion expressed by the Members of the Committee that it was very interesting and inspiring to learn about your case at the World Bank and especially the ideas you have presented to us to make whistleblowing more effective.

The objective of the hearing was to gain evidence as basis for possible future legislative actions. I believe that this objective was achieved and that the outcome of the hearing will be of considerable importance for the future work of the Committee.

I thank you again for your in-put and participation.

Yours sincerely,

Luigi de Magistris
